Don't eat sushi near the fish pond, it's Tzaar Baalei Chaim (or is it Lo'eig LoRosh?) ;D

oh no.. I have fish in my kitchen at home. I guess we got to eat herring, gefilte fish, sushi, tuna sandwiches, lox, in the dining room or is it ok as long as I am not eating gold fish?

If you eat your goldfish, all your problems will be solved at once. You might have to wipe a tear though, and handle being labeled a fish murderur the rest of your life by your wife and children. But, you can finally eat herring in the kitchen guilt free!

I used to think gold fish cant live longer then 1-2 days (when my children bring them home from carnivals they die that night) so I was OK with fish in the kitchen. Now that the fish is about two yrs old I am getting worried. I cant limit my matjas herring to the dining room?!

2 years for a goldfish is like 99 in human years. He/She will be dead soon. Make sure to prepare an appropriate hesped.
