how do we celebarte sukkos in sud afrike?

Sorry for the late reply. How do we celebrate sukkos in Suid Afrika? Well there are no hard and fast rules, but one thing is for sure. MEAT! Steak, ribs, lamb ribs, chops, borewors, biltong, droe vors, more biltong, more steak, more chops. Then as dessert, more biltong.

Also make sure not to strain yourself in "putting up the sukka" i.e. hire a bunch of people to put it up for R100, and then lift up the schach for a second so that it was put up by a jew. How different it is in Israel! We have to do everything ourselves! Where is Sipho?

grappie julle.

Maybe just one... South Africans like to complain about how bad things are over a Johnny

First a brocha shehakol nihyeh bidvaro. Amen! and then L'chaim! G-d bless you all for walking this way with me.

We will ask our resident expert.

I won't name him but perhaps he will show his pretty face and fill us in and fill us up.
