Hi,

I introduced myself, not long ago, Here. But I have grown since then, and have outgrown my small house in the "Introduce Yourself" part of town. I am a Jr. Member and soon will be a "Full Member" IY"H, so I decided I needed to build a new house in a new neighborhood. I looked around at different neighborhoods and saw some spectacular houses in "Wall of Honor". I see that Zemmy and Bards have built here among others, so I decided to plant myself here as well. I will hopefully build some walls of honor myself, and continue to make great friends along the way.

I plan to use this as my main posting thread. So please come in and make a l'chayim, or enjoy some chocolate babke and fresh brewed coffee, or just stop by to say hello.

It's a privilege to dwell among such chashuve yidden!

gevura, i am surprised at you!

a dedicated monsta' trucker would have chrome trimming as well as suspension made of medical grade berylium-possumium alloy with shocks filled with gestaltzimfleegen gas and would not hesitate to drive over uncle tom's log cabin hmmmmmm...

Mazel Tov Gevura! I really liked that vort about the beis hamikdash, and I would like to add my own.

It was about three weeks after the "get" when Harry was beset with regret, filled with pangs of remorse...

Do you think I'm going to say he regrets the day he was in the Beis Din writing the Get, or that he regrets treating Chani like a dog [or piece of plastic produced by Mattel]. Of course the remorse is for all those wasted years, the years he and Chani were together and he abused her in every possible way...

So, are we supposed to cry because we don't have a Beis HaMikdash? NO! The sorrow is for all those wasted years, for the Gilui Shechina that we wasted away, not realizing how lucky we are!

Nachamu Nachamu Ami....

What Rabbi Zemiro's means, is that it's not "my own" vort, but rather something I heard from Zemmy.

There is an old Yiddish saying "Der zikuren iz ah goniff" "Memory is a thief", sometimes you hear something and "Memory" feels that it's too good to retain who said it, and so it remains Memory's...

But Zemmy if I think "yours is mine" it shows great achdus:

See that TZ, there is such achdus between us that he called us "a real good man"!
