one of my favorite verses in tanach [after [url=http://www.guardyoureyes.org/forum/index.php?topic=2893.msg133245#msg133245]this[/url]], the reason being that it's one of the only places in King David's poetry where he uses "rhyme" besides for just "prose" and you killed that it should read.

Rav TZ,

can you help me with a question i have?

if i were to conjure an image of a mighty bird of flight, i would think of an albatross, eagle, raptor or something similar, not the rather humble dove. it like comparing a Piper Cub to an F-15...

Dov would be rather delighted to be called humble. But seriously, who said anything about a mighty bird? A dove symbolizes purity, and knesses yisroel liyonah imsilah.

King David expresses in a wonderful poetic sense, the feeling of longing for home, a dove symbolizes a strong sense of home, and a strong sense of belonging within the jewish people, and that is what he was looking for, as the passuk goes on to say,

:????????? ??????? ??? ??????? ?????, ????????

This is as far as pshat, and poetry goes, but actually, the midrash asks your question:

?????? ??? ???? ?? ?? ???? ??

????? ?? ??? ?? ??? ????? ????? ???????, ??? ?????, ?' ????? ??? ??? ???? ??? ??? ??? ?????? ???? ??? ?????, ?? ???? ?? ??? ??? ?? ?? ??? ???? ??? ????? ??? ???? ????? ?????? ????? ???? ?????? ?????? ???? ??????,

rebbe, i still don't understand in the pesukim preceding this one David Hamelech is scared. he wants to escape. not necessarily to go home, just to get away.

so why choose a weak bird as a mashal?

First Of All, King David rocks [that's for you blind beggar ;)]!

"I don't know of any that do," Alice said very politely, feeling quite pleased to have got into a conversation.

"You don't know much," said the Duchess; "and that's a fact."

-Figurre the source out by yourself

Actually the Midrash answers that, the Yonah seems to have more power than all other birds, and strength to persevere in flight, so obviously it's not looks that count...

ok, gotcha

i did not understand the midrash the first time around. now that you 'splained it i do. mucho gracias.

so basically the dove is the Energizer bunny of the bird kingdom, it keeps going and going

Finally! We got into a whole Tehillim discussion, I've been waiting for one since I joined. Also, please Zemmy, don't call me Rav or Rebbe, Numero Uno. You're almost old enough to be my pops ;D! #2. I'm just a simple TehillimZugger....

And now for an

OFFICIAL POST:

Life's a mess.

No Chavrusa in the Morning

[I took a job editing a sefer, can be boring, no creativity involved even though some of the content is fascinating]

Half Chavrusa in the afternoon

No Chavrusa at night...

Hanging on....

I was supposed to do a First Step share on the phone Tuesday night, but it didn't work out, wanted to do one yesterday but the weather was bad, and I can't speak indoors, weather is terrible today too-- that's all the news that's fit to print... gotta go work on that sefer.
