

Citi Field Asifa

Posted by Kedusha - 23 May 2012 20:05

Dear Chevra,

I'm very interested as to how many people from the GYE community were at the Asifa this past Sunday (May 20). I was there, by the way (at Citi Field).

Please vote to let us know and, preferably, also post below.

Check out the Frum newspapers this week. I suspect that they will do their best to include transcriptions of the speeches.
