

Ma Nishtana? Why is this Yom Kippur different?

BH a Gmar chasima tova to all of us, may we be cleansed , purified and restart our lives this Yom Kippur.

I am no naive, and I know that even after the 90 days have been reached, the nisyonos are still there (and perhaps even stronger) .

However, this YK does feel different. I know that I have achieved something CONCRETE. After a few YEARS of YKs in which I cried over my internet problems, and yet re-fell time and again , I finally know that i am standing in a more focused place.

I am writing this in order to encourage you guys to keep climbing (the air here is cleaner...)

And to tell you that GYE is an absolute blessing & a necessity!

I also want to ask mechila if i hurt anybody in this forum.

Kevin
