At no point can we say that we are "there"

I was feeling mildly stressed yesterday. Today I was just driving and... I wouldn't say that I took a second look but more like

??? ??????? ????? ?????? ????? ??? ????? ??? ???

I figured that I would post this instead of thinking about how I would have liked to go and let myself fall.

That's why you have that 20mm cannon up top

That's what that was! I thought it was more like a Celestron 20 * 80 heavy duty alt-azimuth binoculars....used to see the sights better.

Well it is a "light armored reconnaissance vehicle" (that's what the Djoimen translates to) so it's meant for looking around...

Today was stressful. Kept on reminding myself how much better life is when I am not drowning in my addiction.

I also kept on reminding myself of all the good things that have happened to me over the past few weeks. Just because things don't go the way I want doesn't mean that HKBH isn't looking out for me

(I know, it's simple, but when under stress the reminder is helpful)
