It's the 90th day today... I don't know what to say... Hashem, thank You... thank You... Don't let me go.

Congratulations! You are truly an inspiration to all of us. You personify the Mishnah

i.e. you did not post much, you did not kvetch much. You simply forged ahead slowly but surely. Now you just need to keep up the momentum. Unfortunately, we have seen many here who reached 90 days and then came tumbling off the wall (lo aleinu velo aleichem). So the lesson is that we must never become complacent - we must never drop our guard. All we have is today - and that is true every single day of our lives. So chabibi, chazak ve'ematz and keep up the good work.

Shabbat Shalom
