Dearest friends

I know you were looking for me and wondering where i landed

Here I am, but you wont recognize me.

Well the last few weeks have been catastrophic

I found myself feeding my impulse/gloominess about once a week

Since my membership end of summer I achieved 50 days twofold.

Failing for the second time ????? was more that I could tolerate

But I am inept to persist in this manner

Now that ??????" is around the corner

I take on myself a new instigation

NEW RULE:

The net is strictly for business usage

No news or entertainment on the net for 2 weeks Bli Neder

Your emails to me can fill the void gap of association

Please friends do keep in touch

(Btw: I hate being the misken so to have a good kesher do tell me about yourselves too)

I will try to respond to every comment

Gut Shabbos

Your buddy

R' Tzvi Meir says in the name of tzadikim: It says "Ki seitzei lamilchama....unisonoh Hashem...biyodecha" if you go out to war, then you will win.

But "ki sovo milchomo b'artzecha" if you wait for the war to come to you, then you're in trouble "vihareioseem bachatzotzros"

This is a very big yesod both for the short term and the long term. As far as the short term goes, if you have reason to think there's going to be trouble up ahead, don't wait for it to come. Take initiative, do whatever works for you, lema'an Hashem don't just wait!

Thank you very much, Rabeinu Guard. Your warm words really mean a lot to me, especially in the state that I'm in right now.

I'll give you a piece of advice: If you really want the book, keep nudging me.

I love you MD! We really missed you here.

You ask where you're up to... You tell me, Tzadik.

Remember, there's nothing to be ashamed of if you're starting again.

Aderaba, that is something to be praised even more! Because it takes extra strength to start again, and it shakes all the upper world anew!

But by now you should be up to 34.

Let us know how you're doing, Tzadik.
