

My days (even more then 90)

Posted by needtoquit - 10 Jan 2013 09:02

I have been working on the Wall of Honor for 6 months now. On my first try I reached 90 days, but then over Succos I fell (hard as is always the case) a number of times. I have since been trying to regain my ground but been having a hard time. I made it to 5 weeks again and then about a month ago I fell again and have been staggering around since. See here for more of my story.

I have finally started up again strong at the very end of December and am now on day 17. One idea which I saw and liked was the $90 for 90 days. So I am doing it with a twist. If I don't finish the 90 days I will give a dollar for each day which I stayed clean to a "tzedaka" which I really don't support. (It is a valid tzedaka just one whose mission I disagree with.) I have been starting to have a hard time the last few days and thought that posting was in order. So, I decided to make a real log of my journey. But not just 90 days clean but Biezas Hashem for many more.

Thanks for reading and Hatzlacha to you all.

I just wanted to check in here to let anyone who cares, know that I am alive.

I also, wanted to share that a lot has happened since I last posted. After a few more months of acting out, being depressed, but not haven't the courage to do what I needed to, I finally joined a (live) SA group & I have now been sober 1 year!

I don't know if it is for everyone, but for me SA has saved my life. I have no doubt that I couldn't have done this on my own. I know, because as this forum testifies, I tried on my own and wasn't successful. I can never thank G-d enough for bringing about this miracle but I can only hope to do my best to help anyone who like me needs help.

Either way, I wish each of you the best in your personal journey and if I can ever be of help, please let me know.

Hatzlacha & G-d bless,

NeedToQuit
