

Yaakov's Ladder

Posted by Pidaini - 08 Mar 2013 17:33

---

Starting my log a little late, i'm BH holding by today, which is number 53 of all the todays, but Bein Hazmanim is coming and i need to keep in check, and might not have time for all the chatting that usually helps me clear my mind (thanks guys!!).

i've been using AlexEliezers advice, that he gave me right when i first posted, of bulletproof Shemiras Einayim, or trying at least, and BH got to Today. but it's all changing now, it's not the same streets that i walk down every day, know exactly where to go so not to look, the dangerous places where i have to be careful etc.

now i'm entering the lions den, going to the airport, the airport itself, a few hours on the plane, etc. it's really scaring me!!

anyone have any ideas?

also been struggling with dreams, i know it shouldn't affect me, but it does, because it makes me realize that my mind isn't clean during the day, which leads to the next question how to keep my mind clean?

Wishing all you a Great Shabbos and it's Parshas Hachodesh so may we all be zoche to renew ourselves!!

that's the only way Rebbe.

Heemanti Ki Adabeir, I will believe when I (continuously) say it.

KUTGW!!

according to this, the only way the colonists were able to declare war on England during the late 1700's was because the colonists themselves had english accents too. maybe.

??? ????

The colonists were not Soldiers of Hashem, ????? they were not necessarily in control of their ????? ????? as much as some of our chavirim here are.

well since you brough it up, here goes.....

Broken Faces, Empty Spaces

two hundred shek

went into his hand

out of the beck'

while playing, the band

but the music was dark

i didn't feel shtark

the answer must be close

it lies in "emUnaschAH balAYlos"

out we go

i can't put on a show

sit down outside

try to be alive

it's difficult to do

when english accent is in veiw

talking about your smoke

how it's making people choke

and while going to the lookout

a cat did come out

he didn't look at us nicely

as if we were on his territory

we told him straight out

no reason to pout

accept life as it be

and act accordingly

the monkey bars are cool

expecially when wearing a streimool

"and shout out loud

Don't you drown in the now"

A big orange balloon

With fire inside

Came flying towards the room

Where could we hide?

With clicks and epiphanies

(and double cheese)

A candy bracelet

That no one should see

Should I go should I not

Why can't we leave this spot

It's not a good sign

we didn't make anything solid of our time

that was the night

hope it gives me koach to fight

every moment I am created and Hashem is appreciated

for those who don't understand the above, let me explain.

I had a day yesterday. One of the "practice what you preach" days.

Accept the day as it is, accept my family as it is (not knowing about my problem/progress, and her being healthy enough to not have to want to learn to live in the moment ), realize that Hashem has created me and today with everything perfectly in place.

I would really have loved to be able to give over what I learned, about living in the moment. I would have loved to give it to every single one of my brothers that I would pass by in the street. But that is not what Hashem wants, He wants me to do what I can, but most importantly He wants me to let Him do what is best.

and in retrospect, and I actually knew it at the time as well, Hashem is crazy kind to me. He gave me chevra all over the world who understand me, who are able to actually understand where I am. Real people (yes Dov, I know who they are) who really care, who really feel for me, and whom I can feel for in return.

Gratitude, an awesome awesome undecscribeable feeling.

I LOVE YOU TOO, HASHEM!!!!!!

Yaakov, you should get a Yellow Hat, I hear they distribute them at the Dushinski Tisch [and if you're ticklish they serve black jelly beans]
