

laughingman tries to count to 90.....

Posted by laughingman - 14 Mar 2013 16:01 as of today all my posts are here as far as my own topics are concerned i have had 2 falls but i am now a week into a new streak i have had success in breaking some previously unbreakable habits not m habits ...thoses i have dealt with somewhat but even farther as a result of the rules that i follow through the 90 days and though i have slips about once in 2-3 days every day foward breaks that tooo down so that it becomes less frequentand eventually non-existent i recently got the s3 and i have had soo far Thank G-d no desire to sttempt to use it for searching ****

i personnaly dont use software barriers for myself (for my kids i do of course) i can break them too easy ...the only way out is personal honesty as all of these things are for now personal actions and it is working ...hopefully it will continue though im sure the real war is coming

As is my normal custom I am continuing to " try" to do betterI make 0 commitment except I have committed to doing whatever mitzvot I can as happily as possible even though I end up putting on tefillin right before zman rabbeinu tam IF I'M ZOCHE!! most days I end up praying (saying at some point amidah) about once a day maybe twice and in a community chock full of minyanim of every type I mostly pray alone

Most of the day I spend helping my wife do everything for my children, may they grow in Torah, and most of the time that entails doing 90 -100%of for granted tasks

I do this because as messed up as I am in truly love my family and only want to see them succeed and if necessary and possible come back to the light of Torah and mitzvot even though I am the instrument of the destruction that has befallen us so far(well there were many, many factors but I only control my actions) I continue to work towards a better dayonly today and tomorrow is always tomorrow

I still carry the shame of what I became everyday and probably for eternity but I also recognize that alot of it was from severe undetected and untreated abuse and neglect especially emotional ...and only now am starting to step back and really see what and how it all happened and am turning around slowly and purposefully bit by bit

I dunno maybe Hashem has something else to show me

Your courage in sharing all that, and more important - in accepting all that, is incredible. Do you have a support team? Most of us who experienced emotional abuse to any level either have spent quality time with therapists who can help us get past the past, and/or have one or two select friends either here from GYE or elsewhere who we can reach out to. (I have not read through all 43 pages of your thread, so if you already answered that elsewhere, my apologies)

I started this topic in 2013a full 5 + years ago well before certain events in my life occurred in that time I have hit bottom after bottomdespite being on the forum and having close connections with some of the top key players here on the gye siteI was here before they moved the site soo many things happened, changed, and some stayed the same despite in this time I have learned of my multiple personalities and their differences and particularities such as one that is essentially a selfish 10 year old in a 35 year olds body

I have learned that despite how I personally feel about myself

I know in my hear of hearts that I am a good person ...and i have fought against all manner of inner demons that i continue to face minute by minute at times it is all in part to teach me to humble myself but I still feel like I don't know how Hashem feels about me Hashem's love for you (and all others trying so hard) is immense. May He help you break free and have menuchas hanefesh.

Soo an update to date I have identified that I have a major lapse every 10 -15 days or more and the same lapses occur in a round alot of it has to do with guilt from past behavior for a looong time I was convinced I was something really bad but my wife actually helped me learn that really I am partly a child and children are not blamed but at the same time I must grow up yesterday I had the privilege of helping a great person and he gave me a blessing there are no accidents

I have been learning mishne Torah by the rambam and I have reached chapter 4 in yesodai hatorah on to many more

my children mostay look to me for all information and guidance and their teachers in school

I have continued to learn acceptance of who and what I am and what I can become

I haven't been here for a long while but I'm still trying to get better the relapses are different

I mostly am having difficulty with interaction between people it has been propused I might hav some kind of high functioning autism yesterday my father elliot Solomon ?????? ??? ?? ??????? passed away

I am an onen at the moment, I feel bad about burying my father in America rather than Israel, I just dont have that kind of money, in fact I owe that kind of money already if I did I would move him here in a heartbeat but I felt that waiting for donations while he remained unburied would be disrespectful to his body

Since my father's passing I have continued to struggle to find meaning in what I do vis a ve avodat Hashem

I often feel like there is no senseI am sullied and the greater ones before me failed as well

I have missed many a day of tefillin and recently I got a throat infection my wife no longer believes in Hashem's existence and wishes for me to do the same

I couldn't do that, but I dont believe In me instead most of my children are on their way to being non religious

I am powerless to intercedeand why should I preach at all, it is hypocritical to say the least but I only wish for them to gain that which i lost and threw away

I wish I could say I made progress somewhat, but I really didn't Sorry to hear about your loss. ?????? ?????? ??????

I once heard pshat of why we say Hashem should be Menachem you, since no one else can be menachem. I can't claim to understand what you are going through.

You mentioned a point which I think is very true. It is not, not believing in Hashem, it is, not believing in yourself.

May Hashem grand you a drop of clarity so that you can go on with your life even with all the sefeikos and doubts. And may you have the strength to withstand these trials and tribulations.

Hatzlocha Rabba

I am sure I am not alone in saying that our thoughts and prayers are with you. May Hashem shine His light on your family.

I have not been here since my father passed away

Since then my uncle and mother also passed away

I have become far more understanding of my reasons for struggling in viewing addiction

At the same time I am still struggling

Its difficult in these times of difficulty

Yesterday I was soo nervous about losing money for a job critical element

So I gave my word no looking at r rated or above

Instead i watched cartoons

I hope Hashem helps me make it today
