

rank on the chart

Posted by Tosfos - 17 Sep 2013 23:29

Rabosai,

Last I looked, I'm ranked 100-and-something on the 90-Day Chart... and I've been enjoying seeing my handle rise up the chart...

... please, please everyone keep rising!

Stay ahead of me! Keep me from cracking the top-100! I don't want to see double digits by my name!

No, I definitely don't plan on falling myself, b'ezras Hashem... But whatever I do, I want you all to be at least as successful as me.

I apologize for bringing in a sports inyan, but as per the late, great hockey coach Fred Shero, "Win today, and we walk together forever."

But then I thought, Darn it, I have it backwards!

alternatively, without anyone having to fall, you can move up the chart as those ahead of you go off the 90 day chart to the wall of honor.

You are correct, of course... thanks for the reminder. Sorry for posting levatala.

You are forgiven just say 10 Hail Moses and call me in the morning. Now go and sin no more.
