

Day 20.

Posted by R76 - 21 Oct 2013 03:58

Not that hard. I hope I can keep motivation.

The main obstacles are loneliness and depression.

R76 - To my prior post, I'm really impressed with your hard work. I am really interested to know what it feels like for you to be removed from the bad stuff for so long?

First, I am 37. Before my sobriety I have m. about twice a week.

Second, I take 4 capsules of licorice root a day. There are more tools at www.guardureyes.com/GUE/Tips/TipsMedical.asp

Of course, a doctor should be consulted for side effects.
