

hi all, this is my shot for long term kedusha

Hi,

I've been fleeing from my demon for just about 7 years! I've stumbled upon this site, as Moshe rabbeinu about the sney and avraham avinu about meaarat hamachpela.

I'd like it if I can find a group to speak with openly about our journey to kedusha... Anyone want to join...?

It will be actual 'chessed shel emet' welcome.

I am not sure if you meant to talk over the phone or to meet, either way i will let the others answer.

But if you want a place where you can share what you have been struggling with, what you have been doing and get advice from the many others that are in the same situation as you, you definitely have come to the right place.

Start posting let us know what is going on. Stick around. this place really helps.

Hatzlocho brother.
