

A new start

Posted by yonatan374 - 30 Mar 2015 00:54

I'm on my 90 day journey, 9 days clean.

After all these years I finally told my wife about my addiction to porn. She was wonderful about it and promised to help any way she could. A true eishes chayil. Better than I deserve. I'm truly blessed to have her.

This allowed me at put filters on my computer to keep me honest.

With G-d's help I'll be able to beat it this time.

But it's getting harder. Still I feel optimistic I can do it this time.

My experience of what works for me, is that there only today and nothing else. And today isn't mine, but is a gift from Hashem. The second I claim credit for today's sobriety is the moment I'm lost; maybe not now but inevitably if my will is n the equation failure is inherent. That's just what works for me.

Broke my last streak of 19 days.

Minor slips but nothing serious. No falls. But the temptation is growing.

Keep strong my friend. Daven to HKB"H. He loves you and will be there for you if you let him.

Going to start an exercise program after Shabbos. My doc is after me and it'll help the issues I'm dealing with here.

It's late and I'm tired. Over 1 month clean. Slippage here and there but still clean B"H!

Congrats! One day at a time. If you can do 40, you can do 1!

40 days! I really wasn't sure I would get this far. 90 days really looks possible.
