Welcome, glad you're here! Your subject is, "this time I will do it PLEASE HASHEM HELP ME" You want to start by getting defining what it is you will do. Because if it's conquer lust you may be barking up the wrong tree. Maybe say, I will work the steps, I will get a chaver, I will pray for God's will for me, I will build up a fellowship of chaverim, I will get on phone conferences, I will read the Big Book etc. Ask Hashem to help you do that stuff and you may be surprised when He answers.

hatzlacha!

You'd be wise to heed to his words.

Had there been a serenity in my life, it would not have taken me as long as it did to get on the right track.

There is much to learn and gain here.

Thank you so much for your replies you have made amazing points.

Yesterday I listened to my first big book session I will be honest it felt really weird I cant ever imagine myself speaking up. besides for this I have taken on the 90 day chart i have filters on my computer and phone and I am going to stay clean for 90 days iyh. The question is how can you actually get rid of an addiction???

Hi

I also wanna. We all wanna be holy. But are we willing to do the hard work that will make us holy? Keep with the phone conferences and learn all the tools and see what works for you. My first second third fourth attempt did not work so I am continuing to up the ante of what I need to do. Just dont get discouraged if you have a setback...just get more involved and do more. You will succeed in a way you never thought possible.

I love you Wanna cause I also wanna.
