I

P.S. When pinaini wrote komt, it stands for Keep On Mega Trukin'

I have been advised by a senior member of the forums that it stands for "Monstuh Trucking"

My deepest apologies to anyone who was offended by the misuse of such a phrase.

And where is your apology on the misquote of his name? It's almost as bad as the guy who wrote cordnot!

Oh dear, This is hard. Two falls on the grammar in one day. Here goes again.

In light of recent revelations that have been reveled to me publicly, I would once again like to extend my deepest heartfelt apologies to anyone who may have been offended by my misspelling of Yankels name. The correct name is Pidaini. And his aviator is an eagle, not a falcon, as had been pointed out. As is mine.

Have a good day

For all you birdwatchers...

THIS is an eagle:

[spoiler][spoiler]

And THIS is a Falcon:

Warning: Spoiler!

Machooooooooool Lach, Machooooooooooooool Lach, Machooooooooooooool Lach!!!

The ikkur is to Keep on Trucking!! Whether it's mega or monstuh, mamish or moiredig.....Just keep on Trucking!!

Another point is to remember the "habitat" in which falls usually take place, isolation. Keeping in touch and honest with friends is one of the most helpful preventatives.

I think you meant "avatar", but in this case "aviator" works too

Another component which a fall feeds off of is being unproductive. Try and keep doing things, anything, that is productive.

Keep on trucking, just one more mile!! When you're there, give us a beep, we'll tell you what

HI ALL (sorry to interrupt the oilams deep philosophical/grammatical discussion)

B'H moved on to level 4 !!!

I want to keep getting chizuk and not let my guard down, any suggestions on good articles etc. that any of you found to be particularly uplifting or strengthening?

Hello out there

As you can see this thread was started nearly 3 years ago since then I dropped out and ultimately got back in it and B H with His help i have been doing well .

I have a thread on the bb forum however i felt that it would be more beneficial to have a thread that everyone can access - in order to give me a chance to have exposure to more people who can help me along the way and to give me chizuk (and possibly i may be able to help someone else as well) .

For the sticklers out there im not sure if this the right way to do this or if it belongs on a another forum, if so please let me know .

I will iyH update my story in the next few days

Humbly yours I-man

Gut vocht

I hope writing this out will help bring me more clarity to my situation and toward life equipped with the tools i need to be free .

I joined gye and started the 90 day chart it was going great or so i thought , i was white knuckling and barely getting by ,the only reason i got anywhere on it was because it was a novel, fresh approach for me, eventually i crashed and burned i was totally missing what people here were trying to tell me and i ended up back in my situation of sneaking around in the night trying to find porn ect. throughout the following 2 years or so i did try here and there with taphsic and the chart again, but it wasnt to great effect ,during this time i left kollel and went to work as well as moved to a different place ,none of this made the challenge any easier , it was very dispairing the feeling that i would never be able to be free of the shackles of lust and of being controlled by these urges, i hated myself and looked at myself in a negative light affecting my simchas hachaim ,avodas Hashem , and my marriage , i thought i hit rock when after having a baby and my wife went to her mother i went and bought a phone and let loose with it for a week - but nope i limped along for many more months doing my thing until finally this past summer....
