I've been trying this for about 3 years now. I decided to post on here to get encouragement and criticism. I'm on day 1 and plan to post daily.

Congratulations on getting out of the first week!

Any further goals?

Yep!.....two weeks!

Congrats! That's really amazing! Keep up the good work. And the key thing is not to become overconfident - it's so easy to slip. I recommend listening to this recent shiur by R Moshe Weinberger at an Elul gathering

"When I feel like falling, I start thinking about all the enemies of Israel and how I will be strengthening them with my behavior. I also think about how I will be weakening them by not falling."

You want me to believe that actually you got to 25 days, just by thinking you're destroying the enemies of Israel? Incredible! Or is it because you feel the blast of Elul?

These haven't worked for me.

Brother please let me into your little secret...

I've also been making a big effort to go to sleep early. When I go to sleep late, I enter the danger zone. Also, I've been staying away from all sugar near bedtime. That includes fruit. I find that if I have a significant amount of sugar close to bedtime, I feel anxiety, can't sleep and then I enter the danger zone.

I came home late last night, and would have gone online to 'kosher' sites (who knows what would have resulted) if not for the fact that I began that post...

Thank you GYE for allowing me to post which has helped me tremendously!!!
