So far so good b"h.

Your truck went racing in a tunnel, and you pop your head out weeks later to Honk

It's great to hear how you're doing!!!!

I hear you. 42 is awesome; congratulations on that! I hope you feel proud about it. Take a moment to appreciate it.

Can you do exercise? It really helps so many things; it makes you feel so much better.

I play sports once a week and when I get home and my wife notices the difference in my mood she says "You should do this every day!"

Stay shtark; people are looking up to you!
