Blessings to you too, your short kind interaction is a joy to me, let us go for 17to22, we are on 16 going to 17' what do those letters of Hebrew mean to you? I need the right meanings, 16th letter appear to surround, and protect, I heard it number is 60' the length of an hour, Its name is Samech. The 17 letter is Ayin, 80 is said to be its number. I have it ancient meaning is eyes, is that correct, I would hate not to see correctly. Have a great day seeing that we are the apple of His eye, and living in the hours of today, surrounded and protected. If different I need to know. ??

Joseph brother shalom!

Is English your first language? It's often difficult to decipher what you are trying to say.

This is just one of the many ways we can offer help.

Welcome!

Do I know you from somewhere?

My friend, unless you tell me your mothers name I haven't a clue who you are

We're a bunch of anonymous sex addicts, relax, you can share whatever you like, and we can chill on the forum with a cup of coffee - no coffee? Yikes

Yeah, let's have a hearty chat about what the word addict means.

This is your journey, take your time, study the material of basics, each of us have our own battles, yet I can at least be a sounding board or an observer too. Be you in the steps you take.

I was using the expression loosely, not to say I'm seriously addicted...

And this place is a safe haven

Day 20' The presence of HaShem, marvelous is He, is has so full the last few days that I have been so free of most temptations. Today in my continuing research in the prevention of disease, and longevity, as I open material there was an inappropriate picture, the strength of my King made it possible to focus on the material, and not the temptation. I had also enjoy reading on habits, and as I enter the door of research, I lines with the Almighty, just in case, and what a saving power to have our greatest Friend beside me to keep my eyes focus on what I was studying.
