Day 21 a shins worth of gain, please what does the letter Shin mean, a symbol of, so I understand it's blessing.

21 is BlackJack!

Usually pays 1.5.

Too bad we don't know when it's comin'.

Next hand you should bet low - even sit it out if you can.

Day 22' may our Maker cleanse and rebuild all 22 amino acids in my body, so my human temple can be one of His dwelling places, and I can do some of His works using my hands. Ps 22, was my song today, some of the verses are my experiences, like verse 23. I am seeking wisdom above instant pleasure, Mishle 22:9 I choose a good eye, not for beauty, but to find the poor to help, thus the eye of blessed Elohim shall hopefully see one apple of His eyes. Another easy day but I am ready for the worst.

Day 23 still leaning on our King, HaShem only One, and none else as G-d, and thanks for Israel, the children of the Almighty, according to Torah.. He is my defense, and refuge for my family, He is my High Tower, He called us to Edens diet, and the herb of the field, for our healing, and Daniel showed a far better diet in 10 days for health, and mental development, Prayer and Torah study was among the blessings of his spiritual life.

Tehillim 23 was my song today. Righteousness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and when the temple is built, I shall seek to be at His throne forever, and my wife, and my children, trained in Shema daily.

Day 26, equal days to the number of blessed HaShem, please leave a note in chatt room, for married, I attempt to leave my support there too. I am working on understanding the process of when I am tempted to fall, so far I find detours to immediately exit my eyes. discouragement, boredom, trials, finding work in landscaping, past mistakes, I Again place these in the Ace's hands, refine my character, I mediate on the best of who our Infinite Father is, in the light of my gaze on His back, I let my spirit become a reflection of Him, and then in the rest of each night, I hope in the morning that my butterfly may fly in the next morning. A butterfly spirit may be force by wind action away from its destiny, yet it rerouted to take its constant redirected flight. The butterfly uses the strong wind currents to reshape its constant choice toward its determined goal, may Blessed Elohim give me a human spirit like butterfly friend.

What is the most difficult thing for a king? To master himself.

. Day 28: A long day, Victory is continuing, but now I am choosing more intimacy of mind and soul with wife and children. I will not settle for pleasure only by deception of self. I am questing life with many questions. How was your day? What did you do today? My best relationships shall be of my family. My wife hobby is, and her goals and plans are, and she hope for and ask for, we prayer for wisdom to achieve? My son's next invention is,.. My youngest son wanted daddy go out in the cold to see the seeds on his flower plant, in his flower bed. So he got his head lamp, and we when to see three of them, I can assure you, there was not even a thought of temptation in that five minutes. Bless'H! Family is our center to enter the love of B"H.
