Hi,

I'm new.

Nervous.

Motivated.

Need Help.

Pls excuse me... until I get back to the mikva I can only type with one hand - the other is holding up my pants...

Hey - Do you take offense to my humor?

Cos I wanted to comment on your last comment

Day 8 - Today seems like it might be an easier day as hectic at work so no wondering mind(or little wondering mind)

Hashem should help us all stay strong!

When I have printed out my Handbook I asked the shop to add a white page cover to front and back.

I just downloaded it onto my phone so i have it and dont need to go online to read it.

If you dont have a phone you can just download it onto your laptop and hide the file somewhere with a nondescript name like "temp file data"

Day 9, B'H, I'm still alive, Still here, Now i've started thinking its easy, no problem, I can do it forever. Normally when those thoughts start coming its just a couple of days until the crash!

But I've never tried to do this with everyone here, so there is hope I can get out of the horrible cycle and stay clean!

May Hashem bless everyone with a great day of strength, hatzlocha and bracho

On day 9 we say "NEIN" to the Y"H and we say "Yoh" to the Eibishter.

Just ask the RBS"O to help and mean it and you will have another wonderful day!

And since you are cutting yourself off from the Y"H and connecting to the RBS"O, ask him for a special bonus to reward your mesiras nefesh. Coming back to HKB"H creates a massive Eis Ratzon. Please daven for me as well!!
