What is considered clean?

What if i look at a woman on the street?

What if i look at images on news of celebs?

etc

OTR - the Monstah Tow Trucker of Group 173 and 174 may say it's upto you (check some of his posts)

The 90 day chart actually has clearly defined regulations - see this link here for the specifics at #8

Keep on Trucking my good friend!!

Whether or not staring at women in the street is considered a fall, I personally have found that when I do that it leads me to porn. I have a much easier time staying clean when I'm not lusting for any woman.

You're experience may be different.

Hatzlacha either way!

You're never safe, even after 90 days, I've noticed when I look at a calendar and think "wow look how long I've gotten" it's a trap, little by little you're pulled back in. Haughtiness always like clockwork makes me sin.
