Bump

what does that mean

It means that I saw you lurking on another thread, so I bumped your thread up to the recent topics list in the hopes that you'll give us another update. :-)

(having a conversation in two different threads is a shtikl confusing)

there is not much to update cause i have been sick so i haven't gone recently but the last time i went i opened up to him about two of my main fantasies and one of them i really thought i would never ever tell anyone and it actually took a while for my self to accept it (its sort of a ssa type fantasy) and the only time i ever felt the apprehension like i left before telling him was before i opened up the first time to my mashgiach

I'm going back tomorrow night so maybe update then ill have to see if i get a chance

hey all im going yeshivah tommorow and dont expect to be back till friday so if i dont reply its not becuase im ignoring you (although i a may just not nessacrily)

I'm having a really tough time right now, my house has become all filtered EXECPT my family room computer because of a glitch

so i asked my father numerous times to put a filter on and each time he said we would get to it but never ended up doing it my question now is what does HE want from me , my psychologist holds that at least in the beginning stages there must be a filter because otherwise i will go for it and i myself experienced this going farther than i would have every dreamed -watching porn in plain sight with my brother one room over, i did my hishtadlus didn't i? what else am i supposed to do?? what HE want me to do thoughts?

I know what it's like to grow up in a house with some avenues open...

Ask your father if he minds you setting up the filter seeing that he doesn't have the time

You can ask him to fill the password just to set it up, or ask a friend...

My 2 cents

At one point I wouldn't even think of looking at stuff with others close by.

But I proved myself wrong.

Push for it. It's life and death here.

Hey all posting here cause I'm feeling realllllly alone I'm at a pesach hotel and its really been a roller coaster of a ride I was m'chalel yom tov to try and get porn on my non frum cousins phone but I also had the chance to get porn on my brother phone and didn't

I managed to stop myself from going to hang out with girls on one night but ended up hanging out with them the next two daysnow my family is all sitting around on their smart phones and I recently got rid of mine and I'm not friendly enough to go chill with the co-ed group I generally just wait for them to call ,me over or something so I'm really bored and really lonely and I just found out today(motzai yom tov) that there are computers here with no supervision so its not the best situation

Sorry to hear you're having a bit of a rough ride and feeling lonely. Just remember, porn just makes you feel more disconnected from? people and even lonelier. At least in my experience. Maybe find a good book to read, or read through some threads here on gye. Anyways, all the best! Never give up!

Shame, and they call these hotel getaways "kosher".

Hold up, we're all rootin' for you!
