Hey all so I fell Monday yesterday and today (Although it was only searching triggering photos and not masturbation with a finish and some people don't count that as a fall I do) my shmeras einiem has been horrible but in terms of hanging out with girls I was good except for last night when while I was talking to my cousin two girls sat down next to us I should have gotten up but didn't (more later have to go now)

Continuing from before (just had to run to lunch) so after the girls sat down I didn't get up I didn't really engage them and although I should have gotten up there was a bit of a victory as I didn't engage them and didn't show them a really cool magic trick I had that would have really started a conversation before all of my falls when the lust hit I had an idea to reach but thought nah I'll win this time ETC so my resolution is just that next Time lust hits I'm gonna reach to someone on the site thoughts?

I don't have much to say

I think your parents don't realise what challenging situations they unwittingly put you through, eg mixing with girls, or unfiltered devices

I don't know for sure, but I think there are brave steps you can take to be successful!

I know exactly how you feel. That's the way I felt for the last while until I came back to gye. A big part of it may be that once we fall, we feel like we might as well keep falling because we aren't going to be ruining our streak anyway.

If you can give yourself more of an incentive to be clean now it might help.

Get a piece of paper, list all the reasons you want to stop, list all the ways falling affects you negatively, and write out some sort of taphsic for a short while.

Once you have a decent streak it should get easier.

I found doing these things helpful. You don't really have much to lose by trying it.

Hey Aryeh,

Just found your thread. Power to you buddy, never stop the fight and you will have breakthroughs, you already hot new milestones and that is a sign of progress.

So you are already growing, it's not very common that anyone kicks it in a single determined effort, it is a culmination of many efforts that usually bring significant results. Whatever, just keep at it, always keep on the fight, when you can search for better and smarter ways to approach this, and whatever happens just stick around and hang with us.

Nothing you can't share around here,

hatzlacha
