

Miracle

Posted by proudchabadnick - 21 Jun 2016 01:04

On one Motzai Shabbos I was really turned on and I needed to watch some Shmutz, but I don't have a smartphone. So I went to a store near me (the only one that was opened that late) and picked a smartphone that I wanted to buy, but it was out of stock. I tried the next one, nothing going. This major store did not have one smartphone!

I was blown away!

I realized that " yesh Baal habayis libirah zu"!

Im blown away.

This is an amazing story that proves that only THE ONE ABOVE has control. If we love and give to Him, he will let us be our best and feel good.

May you have Much Much Haztlacha in all that you do, and keep looking out for those moments to be thankful, sometimes they can pass you easily
