

Feeling down after a big fall

Posted by Holy Man - 18 Aug 2016 00:01

I fell today after I've been on the chart for 27 days! It feels terrible but I know that I have to give it another shot to finally succeed at 90 days. I need chizuk and phone filters!

Holy man,

I understand where u are coming from that you feel terrible giving in after all this time. Do not focus on this downfall as it was nothing more than a mistake, now unfortunately a reality, and move on. Take one day at a time. I would love to hear your story so that I may give you more proper chizuk so please email me(360gye@gmail.com)

Good luck
