sdf's Recovery Journal Posted by sdf - 18 Sep 2016 16:59
After a ~12 year roller coaster of addiction and compulsive behaviors, I finally got on the road to recovery by (re)joining GYE. Currently working the steps on a phone group and just trying to generate a regular???.
My current count is 12 days (which is the longest in over 4 years). Trying to focus on recovery and healthy emotional/physical/mental wellbeing rather than sobriety
I wish everyone a ????? ????? ???? ???? ?????? and may our road (to recovery) become an "autobahn" to the redemption with the speedy arrival of ???? ??????.
