Just started my 90 days journey (hopefully indefinitely) a little nervous as for years i have had very long stretches with feeling nothing and then WHAM massive fall which would then spiral out of control until someone found out. But now i have gye and everyone here who are so

When i was a bachur my rebbe introduced me to someone from SA. I told myself I have no time. Now I'm BH married with 2 kids knh and studying for an upcoming test and there's plenty of time.

Today I believe that making recovery a first is the only way for me to live. And without recovery I have less time for other things. (Cruising daily for a half an hour doesn't do much for me or my children, I don't think).
