I really want to rant and rant and rant but that will not help anybody even me encouraging and thoughtful that i know i can do this for good !

But the stress is building up and I see a volcano about to explode

?curses to those who give a dysfunctional childhood and then marry them off for the spouse to deal with the shattered pieces of a person that they left.....

That sounds pretty tough. I can't give advice since I'm not in your situation, but I can quote a guy who is..

Thank you Hashem for all that you give me and for all that you do not give me

Where did dysfunction start?

Highly possible it's passed thru the generations, perhaps even from the 1st sin - eating the forbidden app(le) - the wife's fault of course

Dip that apple in the honey - make the best of it - and may you have a sweet new year

????????????????????

SG and Markz

Thanks for the replies it was nice to wake up at 4:50 in the morning and get a laugh

Unfortunately My first reaction was to start arguing with the replies but then I said to myself You idiot they are just saying to take a breath and appreciate what you have and run with it and stop wishing for something that is not yours!!

Thank you and because of this I know what I have to work on next ....

Okay here is the deal

I will be"n be going to family for Sukkos and that means going to a place that I always have had a fall. It is not possible to take away the cause please just leave it at that.

So the plan is to get as many phone numbers from the chevrah here so that I can call them as needed. Please email me your number if you can be of help to me in this matter I would greatly appreciate it.

I do not have a # as of now but will bl"n send it to all those that would like to join me in this matter when I do get one.

Thank you all for your continued support

Dov talks about this too

on his Bein Hazmanim call at minute 60

So the truth is that I have not been updating my chart so as not to have the embarrassment again by announcing a fall but I will say it anyway I DID NOT MAKE IT TO Y"K!!!!

I started again now but I feel bad about myself it was so stupid not to reach out to those that were holding out their hands to me

Quick update

Cutting back on how much I am on the computer as I feel it may be causing me to feel triggered and edgy

On a happier note we are awaiting a simcha this zman as well as Hashem has provided us with an amazing kollel to go to next zman

I am davening that I may continue to see Hashems help in everything and that I may be able to go thru this without losing my "sanity"
