I felt myself skipping today, don't laugh but I was only looking on Amazon with a filter and pics are blocked out! But I was really trying hard to find some books with pictures that are not blacked out, was so aware while doing it!!
Now Amazon will be taken off my white list, I don't need it so just letting it go!
I requested to have it blocked and it still isn't, I wanted to take a look tonight but decided to Laugh out loud first and post it on GYE!
So right now I am loling out loud, lol lol I wanted to see a lady with out clothing on, what a nut job!!
Hope nobody heard me outside my car!!
Look up you are being watched by an amazon prime drone. Smile for the camera so, to all zisse yidden on gye, i just wanted to update you on whats tiger up to these days.

After lots of acting out I have had the strength and courage to join SA, for those of you that have been following my post i am sure you read that SA was the furthest from my mind.
?i am hoping this will be an inspiration to those people that SA comes to their mind.
dont know at this point if SA will be the answer for me, i am trying it because it has obviously helped many people and at this time i am willing to do anything to learn to live without this allergy.
am still in a dreamlike state and i think it did not register yet clearly enough for me to realize what a huge choice i made, only with the help of god.
f anybody here feels deep down in his gut that he is totally out of control and his acting out is getting worse not better please consider doing something more then you were doing till now.
know that it is hard to admit that we are sick and we basically only admit it when we are sooooo sick, so i am saying to my friends to be honest with yourselves, you know best

I think that the issue here is that for many of us, no matter how much chizuk we got in the daytime, it didnt stop us from turning into behemes in the night time...

And so while the heilige sforim help like nothing else in the world (its the Torah!!!) we just understood/understand that they were not going to stop us from acting out.

And we had to dig deeper, into ourselves, deep to the reasons behind the acting out...
