Day #57

3 day more to go and i passed 2/3 clean, major accomplishment, at this time of the year, when the streets are really messy, even that nobody is responsible on my eyes (ill argue about this when ill be cured, but for now ill agree) but its still messy, they walk on the streets like fresh born people, almost undressed, and its very tough there, especilly when driving, when i have to look around, but with help from Hashem ill get there.. and i wont fall again, i hat to fall, (do i hate to act out too? i wish....) so i dont want to feel miserable so ill continue with my march... and i wont let me self into a sinkhole...

as always: On Day At A Time, thinking like this helps, its not a dream, its reality..... just lets support each other, and we will win this fight together...

Thank You All, Thank You Hashem...

Let's Stay Strong! Let's Stay Clean! And let's be positive and happy, Yes! We can and we will do it! And Together....

Hi Chevra, Chabirusu kadishusu Hudein...

i was away from this group for along time, i just popped in for a bit here and there but not for real, i am clean for a long time, i have no clue how many days, i stopped counting it, but thats for sure, im clean and i have the drive to stay clean because of you, the memebbers of this great and holy group... you help me getting out from this horrible addiction. I just take it one day at a time, and it works wonders...

i do have some tough days and some easy days, but i push it through, B"H.. only with the help of hashem i am where i am, i cant do it alone, impossible, its just impossible.

Question is, i would love to give back for this wonderful group, money i cant give, i dont have that much, but i an give back by writing (at least try) a daily post, so my question, is, if you guys will have anything from it, or will it be just for me, and if its just for me, then im fine without it... so far.. will you guys have a boost from my postings or not...

please share with me your thoughts....

thank you all and have a wonderful and clean shabbes....

Welcome back,

I personally appreciate when people post. Especially when they share their personal successes.

We all can give, even if we are not financially well off. Give a smile to your close ones. Give an encouraging word to someone. Reach out to people here that are struggling and give some of your time to speak to them and encourage them.

Keep on giving!

May you be blessed with a lot of Parnossah B'Reivach.

Git Shabbos!

Please continue posting. Every individual adds tremendously to the entire GYE experience. Sharing your challenges helps give courage for others to do the same. Sharing success shows others that "it can be done". Without realizing it, those who post, end up advising so many people with concepts that to them may seem simple, yet for someone else is a chiddush he needed to hear. And in the metaphysical sense, the greater the tzibbur is, the more hashroas haShechina, and the more hatzlocha b'ezras Hashem.

B"H im clean today, and im clean now for a very long time, no clue how many days, but i know its for a long time, and BH for that.

Before i became a GYE memeber last year, a week befor pesach, which is now 1 1/2 years, i was in a Matzev of no control whats so ever, and it didnt bother me at all, i knew im wrong, but i was sooooo cold, freezing cold to everything and anything so it just didnt touch me, and just the opposite, i loved to act out, i did it as often i could, i looked out for the minute i can act out, but since im on GYE, i probably act out maybe 6 or 7 times, dont know exactly, but its between 5 and 10 times, which is a huge milstone for me, i acted out since im 8 years, none stop, and here i am, clean for the longest time, and even when i fell the last 1 1/2 year, i call it a fall, and not acting out.. falling and acting out is totally different things....

To all of my brothers out there, let me tell you, if there is a will there is a way, i was there, and i know what im talking about, but even when you really want to get out of this mud, there has to be with a "mehalach", my approach was 2 things, Taphsic and partner, after 6 months, i was able to get rid of the Taphsic, now im staying clean, by taking one day at a time, every morning, first thing after Modeh Ani, im telling to myself, that today only, i want to stay clean, and hashem is soo good to me, and i must give back to him, and that will be my Mesiras Nefesh of today, i will give him over all my Reiyas on the street, ill look only on the floor, and thats what keeps me going the entire day, in one word, i cant be a Kufi Tova for hashem when he is soooo good to me.. another thing is tefila, i ask Hashem at every shmona esre that i CANT do it alone by my self, he must help me, with out him, im like a fly, im nothing... and he helps me.... i see it on a daily basis...

so guys, i know its very tough, but at the end you will feel a million dollars, it pays to suffer in the beginning, just start... there has to be a beginning.

so, thank you hashem for giving me the opportunity to give you back, and in the same time helping me to stay clean, and thank you hashem for guiding me to this wonderful group GYE, you, all memebers are part of my success THANK YOU ALL
