

sci1977 journey

Posted by sci1977 - 30 Nov 2009 15:50

I started on November 23rd on my 90 days online. I have been clean since the 19th. I am feeling a little scared today. I woke up and said this is going to be another great day that G-d gave me. It has been a tough day so far. I decided to log onto the website and not get off. After reading some and looking back at emails, I am feeling better, but am not going to chance it. No slips or falls. I will NOT give up!!!!

Baby steps for YOU, maybe...I'm still watching you with awe.

One baby step for an addict...one giant leap for addict-kind!

I'm nutty already, haven't you figured that out yet? One nut needs another nuts. Hey, that could be a GUE phrase on the homepage?

Thanks. You inspire me also. I realized today that anyone who take the chance to come to this website is not only smart they are inspiring as well. It does not matter if you have been here from the beginning or if you signed up one minute ago.

I absolutely agree with you, Sci!

And we might all be a little not-normal. But (I think I've said this before) look out your window, _____). That's normal. Do we want to be a part of that?

Oh, and Reb Human - We're here for you - and you're here for us, too. Like Sci said, the very fact that you've joined is inspiring. Plus, I think that on a deeper level, the more people we are fighting together, the easier the battle is...it's the koach of a tzibur.

And maybe even b'rov am hadras melech?!

Welcome to the big bag of nuts!!!

Quit a good point!

I like roasted nuts, providing they are not burned.

So you got caught up in the fire, nearly got burned but then you were saved, and now you have a nice tan and taste superb.

Thanks to the cook, of course.
