I started on November 23rd on my 90 days online. I have been clean since the 19th. I am feeling a little scared today. I woke up and said this is going to be another great day that G-d gave me. It has been a tough day so far. I decided to log onto the website and not get off. After reading some and looking back at emails, I am feeling better, but am not going to chance it. No slips or falls. I will NOT give up!!!!

You know why we don't eat nuts Elul?

Because we all do Tshuvo so there ARE no nuts.

Why do we start again on Smini Atseres?

To remind us that Hakofos are coming and we should be carefull not to become NUTS again!

Um, I thought your self looking at those white hair
Day 48 of being clean and sober. This is turning into a fantastic day. Business is picking up and that is very good. The busier I am, the better off my head is. I am keeping it simple regarding my recovery and everything else. I am finding this to be a beautiful journey discovering myself. I am uncovering things I did not know about myself. The slower I go the better I actually feel. Looking around me things are just more clear. The grass is certainly greener on this side of the fence. I look at the little things much better. I have noticed I have a little more patience which is a great thing. G-d has helped me look at life with more focus. I have a general routine that I have created at wake up and bed time. Having that has really helped. G-d leads me and I am just following. The outlook of live, laugh, and love is really working. My wife and I are on a good path and that is something that if not with out us both putting our lives in G-d's loving arms, who knows where we would be. I cautiously move forward, but always forward slowly. I continue minute by minute and that has really helped me enjoy this ride. Simplicity is sometimes very underrated. No slips or falls, non needed or wanted.

I WILL WIN THE BATTLES AND THE WAR-WITH G-D'S HELP!!!

Te busier I am the better. It leaves me to have no time to be distracted. I leave GUE up on the background of my computer and look and see whats going on every once in a while. I also found out yesterday that nuts love to discuss nuts on my thread. Thanks to all who participated.

May I claim the pistachio? You know, once you crack the shell it's lovely inside.

On a serious note, I realized that when I disconnected the internet at home my financial position became much better B"H.
