I started on November 23rd on my 90 days online. I have been clean since the 19th. I am feeling a little scared today. I woke up and said this is going to be another great day that G-d gave me. It has been a tough day so far. I decided to log onto the website and not get off. After reading some and looking back at emails, I am feeling better, but am not going to chance it. No slips or falls. I will NOT give up!!!!

Thank you all for caring so much. I am doing well. Another day of being clean and sober. No matter what its a good day. So many lessons to learn when things like this happen.

So true...Your wisdom always amazes me...I suppose I should be used to it by now, but every day, you manage to surprise me yet again by revealing new depths.

Anothr day of being clean and sober. Been sort of run over by life the last few days. I think I might a job opprotunity very soon, so hopefully will not be on government assistance long. I have spent the last week or so under much stress and I really had the skills to deal with it. I will not say it was all me. Between G-d and my wife I have held pretty strong. I have spent a lot of time with the kids and just trying to keep up some sort of routine within the day! I wish I have had more time for the website, but I guess you can say I found life and the meaning of it the last few days. Money is not everything. Your family is so much more then money. G-d is so much more then money. But I think most important for me is knowing I was a grown up in how I dealt with the past week or so. I never even thought about slipping or falling. If life is life and G-d has a plan, then let the plan that is G-dly be followed. No slips or falls, non needed or wanted.

Indeed, with hashem's help, and your wife's - but still, I hope you feel proud of yourself! You should, because you can see how much you;'ve grown, in so many ways - in how you see the world, in how you act, in how you feel!

Have a great shabbos!

Thank you very much guys. It is certainly a place, where you lose your income. where you find out what you are made of. It's sort of a great test in life's journey. It's not just about being an addict right now, it's about me, all of me.
