

90 days wet nights

Posted by Moshe09141 - 07 Aug 2018 05:07

Hi everyone I had a wet night and can't remember anything besides of feeling that don't want it to happen

now would this be considered as a fall or can I consider myself as clean

I couldn't find it in other posts

Sorry to hear that.

There happens to be tens of posts regardin' this issue, but it may take a geek to figure out the searchin' mechanisms on this site.

No, it is not a fall. Some will say that it's even God's way of pattin' you on the back or knippin' you on the cheek. I don't get that, but anyway. Some will say it's the subconscious, and that's fine as well.

Bottom line: work on recovery durin' the day; if that's where it's supposed to be, smile.

I searched for this on google and I got some results:

site:guardyoureyes.com dream

Be mindful what you type into google because it shows up in the ads you get served, search suggestions etc
