Gosh im so frustrated. I feel like im never going to be satisfied sexually. I have so much more excitement looking at other women then my wife. Having sex with my wife never does it for me. An hour later i can still watch porn. My biggest issue is when i go on the street and i see women that get me excited it frustrates me bec i wish i would have that with my wife

dear shmuels

i feel very bad for you question

how much do u enjoy your wife how much fun is intimacy at home how fluid and smooth is your relationship with her?

maybe we need to work on this wish you well

one time i saw a woman in the street and and felt attracted to her ,but of course i put my eyes back on the sidewalk, but as we got closer i looked up again to make sure i wont bump into her(really!), and lo and behold it was mrs. sleepy!, i learnt from that, im busy looking for something that i already posses,trust me, my wife aint miss america, but what im saying is,even if i was married to miss america, id probably would be peeking at miss Czechoslovakia.
