So I fell today which was Eruv Shabbos. I don't know how anyone feels, it it feels terrible. Being that I want this victory (90 days) so badly, I came on to guard your eyes, and I've seen that people suggested to post daily. I'm gonna start, Bli neder, to post daily.....HERE WE GO!

Sounds good, that you pushed away. I wish I would be better at distancing myself from the computer.

Your post is read by many on the site. Don't be fazed when people don't respond. I have gotten regards about my posts from many that are not (yet) comfortable posting, but frequently check in to see what is new on the forum. Keep posting buddy and keep the good news coming!

So today it got a bit rough during the afternoon because i had some college work that need to be done and was home alone. all of my devices are filtered but there are a bunch of devices in my house that are not, ones that are out of my control to filter. so i just keep them out of sight. mid-way through my work i got a slight urge to go use one of those devices, but i just sat and a couple of deep breaths and just said to my self "its hard now but will get easier , dont give in just like that, show hashem that you are fighting and that you want to win." b"h i passed completely and posting this right before i goto sleep. till tomorrow. one day at a time!!!!!!!!!!!!

Great job! Perhaps in the future, if you find yourself alone in the house can you take your laptop to a public WiFi (library or similar) and do your work there? Being alone with an unfiltered device is dangerous in the long run.

hey so it clearly been about two weeks since i last wrote. basically i caught up in work and just being busy and missed a few days of writing on the forum. I made a large mistake by stopping because i thought that i had a lot of chizuk and i was set. unfortunately i had a fall, but i didn't let that stop me and i got right back. In a way, I'm okay with falling, along as i don't fall the same way twice in a row.(this time i believed the reason is because i stopped posting). The time though, with the true help of god, i will try my best to not miss a day of writing. This is a battle that requires the strongest of our generation(the times of moshiach) to stand up and fight..... WE ALL KNOW WHAT WE WANT, SO LETS GO GET IT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Take things day by day.

Just because you might have ben clean for a long while, it does not mean that you can be complacent.
