LIVE documentation of 30 days
Posted by yuyu - 03 Nov 2020 02:51

Hi everyone I am starting tonight a 30 day challenge of staying clean.

I will post every day my status. my challenges, my battles and my feelings.

Let's see what result of such a journey will bring.

In case you pop in here and you see I didn't update yet for a day or 2 - cuz I might forget, pls reply with a comment so I will get a notification reminder to update.

If you wanna be kind leave me a Beracha and wish me hatslacha.

Thanks, much love

yuyu,

I would first speak this through with one of the many GYE professionals as they could probably advise you whether this is the case or not.

Not sure where you see that in your thread. In fact, I would have thought you can quit cold turkey.

You would be best off with a phone call to an experienced gye mentor.

A GYE memeber messaged me privately telling me to attend SA meetings. He claims that the pattern he sees here in my thread is of an addict and nothing is really gonna help me beside meetings.

As the others responded, you should get in contact with a veteran gye member or the professionals on gye.

Agreed. HHE, Dov etc are some of many options
