

Giving it another shot

Posted by anothershot - 01 Jan 2021 06:18

Hi! I have been coming to gye for about a year and a half but this is my 1st post on the forums.

Last year I had a clean streak of 183 days but then I fell and since then I have been up and down with smaller clean streaks and less acting out in between.

Recently though I have been falling too often so I decided even though it's difficult for me I will start a thread to hold myself more accountable.

Amazing! Use your streak as a motivation to get right back up and don't focus on the slip!
Hatzlocha with your next streak.

Sorry to hear that it's going tough.

Do you try at least to push off the acting out for some time? If not, please make a commitment to try this. Even if it's for 15 minutes (or less) , at least you can prove to yourself that you CAN be strong and it's also very special to Hashem, every second of kedusha is special and will be rewarded, beyond our imagination.
