Welcome great to hear!

I still think you should change your name as that one is already taken. Ok?

Looking forward to a lively debate between the two HHM's!
The other member (or veteran Kind of like the scene in Marvelous Midos Machine when Dr. Midos is talking to himself (Ouch!

don't mess with my wicked bekus. Whaaatever...)

However, if another IMG arrives to GYE (even without spaces!), I'm officially checked out - I don't fare well with identity crises.

I think it's just very very confusing. Not your fault at all.

The other "Hashem Help Me" has helped countless guys and has more than 2 thousand 6 hundred posts on gye. How many do you have?

You may have the drive to post as much, but since you're still at the beginning line of posting, it shouldn't be too much of a hassle to go to your user account, change your name and post away like your life depends on it!!!
