

just do it!

Posted by Ybird - 02 Nov 2021 15:35

Hi everyone here on gye, this is yBird,

I want to post some of my struggle in my journey to 90 days clean, I'm in my low 20's with 2 children, in a Chasidic community in brooklyn, Before my chasuna i B"H didn't know of any shmutz (WHAT?!) not erection, not pn, only holiness ty"h, but I did sometimes have lust thoughts going through my mind like imagining how to have s*x and how it would look like after my Chasuna, also I used to have wet dreams once in a while.

I married a wonderful wife and we had a wonderful marriage, but not for too long. The first 6 months after marriage we had a wonderful love life with intimacy every single day, but it all came crashing down when she got pregnant, it went from 7 times a week to once in every 7 weeks or even less! it was very hard for me, really tough but i got thru it for some time, till i discovered that i could have pleasure without having my wife involved RCH"L, also i started to watch p* on my wife's phone when she didn't see, first it was very few and far inbetween, but it got more frequently, and i sometimes i even opted in for own pleasure instead of real s*x with my wife,

After first baby things didn't get any better from wife's side, she got totally disinterested in having s*x, after a year and change she got pregnant again and now she is after her 2nd baby, and I'm reaching out to hashem to save my s*xless marriage, and myself from avairesi started GYE right before Rosh Hashana, together with the 90 day calendar but I fell a few times, please if someone could give me some advice or chizzuk i would appreciate it very much. If you read till now please forgive me for writing such a long post thank you.

i reached 50 clean days!

thank you hashem for keeping me pure and to all of you guys, i would never got to that number without all of your help

AMAZING!!!!!!!!

You have no idea how much chizzuk it gives us when a person keeps strong and clean. You're actually bringing a lot of kedusha into this world, Hashem loves you!

Please keep it up for your sake and for the sake of many many people that you're encouraging...

bh we are not rubber ducky's we are human beings without any floating gear, (the fish in the Filthy water pull everything down, no matter how many gear you have it won't help, btw mazel tov to my 77 days clean of P&M, i still hope to start a 90 days on top of my existing chart to quit social media and staring at women on the street, and browsing inappropriate images online

Keep it up tzaddik. realize that day 91 is not so different than day 89.... Do not become demoralized because your yetzer hara still exists. Celebrate where you are up to and be confident that b'ezras Hashem you can continue...
