

My new life

Posted by bochur23 - 25 Jan 2022 11:45

I was debating if I should just continue my old thread

(<https://guardyoureyes.com/forum/19-Introduce-Yourself/359379-restarting>), but I decided to make a fresh start.

I've "tried" many times before to fight this, without much success. Over the past year, I've had some better times, but so far nothing lasting.

What's different now is that boruch hashem I have constant access to GYE on a filtered device (until now it was always on unfiltered devices, which is why I didn't visit too often). Hopefully that will help things along, as I'll be able to use all the resources available to help me.

Im yirtzeh hashem I will now be able to update every day, and I plan to do so.

So today starts day 1 of the rest of my life!

Another day clean boruch hashem.

?I'm at the point where I've only had one fall in the last month, almost at a full month clean (then i get to read the next book IYH!)

So, as implied from my not posting for the last couple of days, I fell last Friday morning, after 24 days clean. Then I fell again Sunday and Monday, but now I'm not in the same place as the unfiltered computer anymore, so should be alright.IYH I'm going to be in camp from next week, so technically should be alright for the next 40 days unless something unexpected comes up (which is always what happens...). But hopefully I should be able to still pop in here daily IYH.

That's it for now, 2nd day clean boruch hashem.

Thank you for sharing. BH you are alive and healthy, with healthy urges. beH you will reach 40 days, then continue on to 90 and stay strong and holy!

I love your positivity! I think that is a very important tool to help grow in life and in this area specifically.

I give up.

ok, not really. But I can't do this myself, and I can't get myself to ask for help.

I hear. I reached a personal rock bottom before reaching out. Believe me it's not ideal...

Thanks for checking in!

Can you start reading the Battle of the Generation, for a bit every night?

Also, how are you falling now? You have unfiltered devices laying around? What is the next step you can take?
