Incredible to see you reach this milestone. I think smooth sailing might be reserved exclusively for olam haba, but this is an amazing accomplishment, you should feel really special for what you've done

In other news this morning was pretty hard because I had a wet dream and I may have been somewhat conscious cuz I remember rolling onto my stomach at one point I think by everything else I was sleeping and then when I fully awoke the yh told me that's probably a fall and you may as well go all out and I also had a huge taivah BH I didn't and now it's getting a little easier.

Somewhat conscious is not conscious. The yh can really fool you on this. I had a very vivid dream last night and in the dream I felt myself being conscious that I was about to fall when I woke up bh before anything happened m, I realized that everything that I was "conscious" of was really nonsense and just a dream. If you didn't make a fully conscious decision then you should ignore anything that happened.
