7 clean days

bh

thank you all for your help it's been damn hard

but I thought it impossible

And clearly it's not things that make it harder:

bored

tired

free time alone with internet devices sad with life

things that help a little:

knowing that free p won't satisfy me, and eventually I would land on paid p (cam sites) again, which is very destructive and that I have no money and have debts (rent) and that I would like to upgrade (replace) my phone and computer and still owe my dentist a huge amount oh and a more or less decent aversion, has been speed chess online. The adrenaline rush is quite something. (Please feel free to challenge me! Lichess.org, my username is shalegunfire,)

I personally won't count masturbation towards 90 clean days. Quitting both paid AND free p would be absolutely huge for me.
