

Why is it so hard?

Posted by Geshmak! - 21 Oct 2022 04:30

I'm almost by 90 but it soooo hard!! Like I'm going crazy! Shouldn't it get easier and easier?!?!

Are these urges ever gonna go away ... like I feel I can't anymore....

please can someone that has been all the way in and got out tell me that it will get easier and I'll bhy be able to live a calm life with out just thinking lustful thought a whole day...like all I see is...women's behind bouncing up and down like can't I grow up and not live so low. I want to live higher happier etc. so started 90 days and thought that when I get there I'll be a changed man but I'm pretty close(86 bh) and it just so hard still. I'm starting to get disappointed and feel like given up so I would love to hear from real people that went through this that it will get easier and life gets better,and that I just need to give it some more time.

It will be greatly appreciated!!

Btw does anybody know how I could get my pm opened again like can I do teshuvah or it's to late I lost my chance?!?!

like who can I connect or will it just open again by itself?

I've been in PM quarantine a while back for about a month (more accurately, my PM was in quarantine), after which I emailed the Mods, and they reopened it.

So today is my 90th day that I was bh not mzl. last time I did it was jul. 27. last night was a real tough one I actually cried like a baby that I want to see stuff my wife thought im going crazy told her I don't like the life style I'm living want to just do what I want etc. but bh I just cried myself to sleep and woke up clean!!! So bh I get a BIG MAZEL TOV I MADE IT!!!!

thank you H'!!

H' should help me further and further-forever!

if you see this please answer with a mazel tov etc. and a bruchah thx. It will give me much chizuk to see how many other fellow yidden are happy and celebrating with me getting to day 90. (Even if never posted anything ever before let this be your first wishing someone on he's hatzluchah)

Wow wow wow!!! Mazel Tov.

Many many other clean days actually a long life with all clean days and much easier with urges and a happy life.

Remember it will get easier, I wouldn't say you would not feel anything but your walks on the street will probably not be like it's now, obviously I can't say for sure but I believe you get used to a different lifestyle slowly, and as mentioned it doesn't mean the urges end, but gets much more manageable and weaker to some extent, I am saying you this to give you hope and you should, keep it up it's definitely worth it believe me [btw, I feel like you described me from not long ago and BH...]

Bh I'm still clean today is day 103 !! I want to thank everyone again for the chizuk and ideas and just showing how much u guys care!! This place rocks the house!!!! Btw I was wondering why my urges are still there (bh it's way less than a hundred days ago) and I realized that even though I wasn't actually being mzl I was still giving in to my sex desires like I would play and than stop look at not such nice jokes etc even though I wasn't looking at lady's but was still imagining and fantasizing etc. like it's nice not to see the real thing but if I keep on feeding my urge even a little it won't go away.... (the same with having in mind sex when ur with wife rather than thinking intimacy... but that's more for the b.h. Forum) so like a week ago I made a kablach not to touch there to stimulate myself and not using my phone computer for any type of sex in mind... and guess what I already see BIG change in my urges and way of thinking abt women and not everything is such a trigger anymore BH!! Thank you H' ! thank you gye! And last but not least THANK YOU EVERYONE ON THIS BEAUTIFUL AMAZING LIFE SAVING FORUM!!!

Yup! I know someone that wants asked my rebba that he wants a bruchah that he shouldn't have any dagis (pressures) but the rebba told him a person shouldn't daven for that cause only someone that on a respirator r'l has no dagies(like he's not thinking abt how he's gonna pay rent or sh.b. Etc.) so your spouse to daven that it should be easier not such hard pressure... exactly you're point... but I think for a different reason my desires shouldn't go away- cause there good just gotta channel it to the right places... but it true that when I daven for no nisyines I should daven that it should be easy for me to over come not that it shouldn't be cause like you said no nisyines no life...

I found a very holy vort from the Holy 'Yismach Moshe' Zt'l, who btw said about himself that from him ten genaration back all of them were 'Notrie Bris' e.g. they were extremly holy people that never sinned in this area.

So he says the following"

?????, ?? ?????? ?????? ????????, ?? ??? ????? ??????? ??? ????? ?????, ???"??

On Rosh Chodesh Av of year 5144 in the morning, i dreamt and it was revealed to me the following, if a person sinned his whole life, or he was totally immersed with sins, or he was addicted to one specific sin with a strong connection, and afterwards he regrets and cries terribly and he accepts upon himself to not sin anymore, even if he transgressed on all Krisos or Misos Beis Din, he is FORGIVEN! and he doesn't need to do Tshuvas Hamishkol (Tshuva that is weighted, meaning the opposite end of the spectrum of what you sinned in, e.g, a very hard form of tshuva),

Because the pain that he has leaving behind the connection and addiction that he has to that sin, is considered a cleansing as would Tshuvas Hamishkol.

Everything that the Rishonim and the Arizal ZT"L gave out to do these difficult tshuva's is only for someone that wasn't addicted in that sin, then he should fast to atone for the forbidden pleasures that he partook in, however, when someone is addicted to a sin, a whole time his YH is pushing his to do what hes used to be doing, and he refuses and leaves that path of sin over and over with all of his might, he has immense pain to slaughter his YH time and again, and there is no greater tshuva then that!

Blessed is Hashem who wants only good.

I hope this will motivate all of us suffering with this pain to continue down this path of tshuva, seeing that all of the pain is actually the best medicine on this world. DO NOT DESPAIR! It will get better.

(the same with having in mind sex when ur with wife rather than thinking intimacy... but that's more for the b.h. Forum)

First I'm happy for you that you are still clean, and I'm very impressed of your hard work, keep it on!

now about your question.

1-as ling we live we will have urges to do bad stuff, that doesn't mean desires for sex, it can be other bad stuff, but hashem decides in which direction to send us nisyoinois, but we have to remember that the yeitzer hura of sex is the biggest yeitzer hura, as we find in chazal, ??? ?????????, therefore its almost positive that this urges will stay for your entire life.

but who said that urges are a bad thing ? Having an urge has nothing to do with a person him self, it's mainly showing that you are healthy normal person, the bad thing is when we act on it, or through fiscally acting out, or through thinking about it over and over again and again. But as long we don't do that there is nothing at all to be upset about it, just the opposite, we should be happy that we did overcome our big yeitzer hura, and be proud of our self, just like finishing the whole shas.

2-even tho when our mindset is totally crippled with those thoughts we shouldn't try to fight with it, just go further and do whatever you are in middle of doing, because stopping to do things and start fighting is the first step to fail, since you will not be able to push it away, just by ignoring the thoughts and doing something, we will get to think about what we are doing and forget from the urge we had.

3-dont worry it will not always be so hard, the more you will get away from it, the easier it will get, just like the vilna gaoin z"l said on the chazal ?? ??? ?????, that when water is dripping on a stone, with every drop, a little of the stone goes down, even tho we can't see it but after years you will see that the stone disappeared, the same thing with the yeitzer hura, he is like a stone and with every drop of good, a little bit of him dissappear, and with the time we will see a big difference.

hatzlacha raba and I love all of you
