

Proactively 90 dayswith intent2BMATZLIACH HAYOM!!

I am now working my way to get back to being fully clean, I have to shteigh in this inyan. I know that I usually fail only when I have my device opened without a filter, all other times are very mynuute, so I just got to make that stopage at home, I am a bochur with a flip phone, just when I go home since during my breaks I have nothing to do, I then search online either shopping or gaming and then eventually leads to the Lo-Aleinu. I have had some etzah from someone here, which worked but I am not doing those exciting things in a Ra'Giel basis so I mi'mellah fall because I return to my normalcy in those breaks. I need to shtigh on and on, and want to build myself to be a good bachur and hopefully get married without such a issue coming with me. I want to get solved like I did in the past and I know it's possible so B"H with the oilam, I can do this!? I am going to be refreshing count to start from day 1 in order to see and count my achievements, although I have done and kept b4 (45+ days) and still didn't break it B"H. This is all in order to show myself that I can do this bz"h!!

, although I've had information someone told me which affects me very much (in pain), ay hk"bh why does this have to happen, anyways just very very annoyed, hopefully I stay strong no matter what bothersome and challenges I will be going through regarding this stressful information that can affect me forever, Hashem I know you are there, please continue and guide me continuously. I am saying this with tears, I really don't know what I did to deserve this hardship but please show me you are there always guiding me, I thank you and love you very much, but at times like this I just don't get it why? I am a good person, this is so nerve racking and don't understand why I am the one to be dealing with such problem. And yes I know people have it worse or so in many different ways but I am right now focusing on this because I guess I am in lots of pain, I can't really Hashem. You have a solution for everything please fix this too. I I am lost for words, why just why, I hope it all turns out all right.

This is a topic I am going through and don't feel that I can share it, all I can say is it's painful and unimaginably annoying which has very big effects in my life, if you get it you get it. Anyways I don't understand Your works Hashem but I will still pursue you no matter how bad it gets.

-Love

your Son
