

Let's exercise together

Posted by iwantmeback - 13 Sep 2023 00:41

Hello GYE community,

I hope all is well with you all and that you are moving ahead to get where you guys want to get to. I am writing to keep in touch / update and extend a hand.

It has been 6 and a half months since I had a rock bottom night, I believe the worst thus far. It shook me to the core in a way I haven't been shaken in a long time. Since then I have been doing much better. I have not reached a 90-day goal but I have had more clean streaks and much shorter aftermath than I have ever had.

This is mainly due to exercise that I discovered. It's been both a pleasure to see myself change physically over the months and a great way to build self-esteem, confidence, and other attributes. Also to release pent-up energy.

I am writing this to share and hopefully give food for thought to the skeptic of physical exercise(I was for many years) and extend a hand to those living in Israel (Jerusalem or Jerusalem area) to help and take on exercise together.

What we go through is tough and there are many ways to deal with it. I am grateful for the initial moments when I was at my lowest and the GYE members were there. If anyone wants a partner to tackle this and add physical exercise to help, I am here, and feel free to reach out.

I have also found that it helps. Is there a specific one you have in mind?

I also found exercising to help (for me it was going for a long jog). But I'm not able to do that so often, I've been trying to find something to do for just five or ten minutes but that won't break a sweat which I can put in the middle of my day. Do you have any ideas?

Jump Into Shape. Run by a frum guy, it's basically an online trainer for jump rope. I recently started it, and it's great!! That helps wit exercise AND scheduling your day. It can also help with your sleep.

Wow!

I'll use that for my next interaction with a Keitzad Merakdin.
