You have what to be proud of! Keep it up.

One of the keys to success is recognizing how special each clean day is and to celebrate it correctly...

How do I add to the post like post updates. Does this forum not confuse you. Or did I just do that with this post.

Not sure what you mean about the live chat. But reading the battle of the generation is super helpful for me with changing the way i look at the struggle. Definitely check it out. Its available on the website as an ebook or on amazon for $10 i think. Or message vehkam for a free copy. You wont regret it.

Nicely Done and good for you!!!

I'm at 16 days on this journey so just getting started myself.

I find what works for me when I'm having urges or bad thoughts is to focus on my goals in life in regards to my marriage and family.

How i would feel if i would catch my son one day doing the same thing.

For me what's worked the most is the change in how i view my relationship with this material.

fell free to reach out if you ever want to shmooze further just keep reminding urslef that the more and more u hold urself back, the easier it will become whereas if u fall it might be nice for that one moment but ur journey to start over (which is going to happen because every time we fall we have regrets and eventually we start over) is going to become that much harder
